MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy to the DCI for Resource Management
Deputy to the DCI for Collection Tasking

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Chief, Physical Security Division,
Office of Security

SUBJECT:

Security Audit of the Intelligence
Community Staff [REDACTED]

1. Under a program initiated in 1979, the Office of Security has been conducting periodic security audits of Agency components. This program was initiated as a result of tasking levied upon the Office by the DDCI, and is designed to assist Agency managers in carrying out their command responsibilities for the implementation of the security program within their components. [REDACTED]

2. This is to advise you that pursuant to previous discussions with [REDACTED] the Security Officer for the Intelligence Community Staff, this Office is planning to conduct a security audit of the Intelligence Community Staff commencing the week of 20 October 1980. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] will be the officers conducting this review. They will be in contact with [REDACTED] to arrange for a time convenient to you to explain this program in more detail, to solicit your views on any specific security issues you may wish them to address during the audit, and to arrange for introductions to members of your staff.
